HIS WIDOW SOLE HEIR

Will of Capt. Charles Laird
Filed for Probate.

CHARLESTON CHURCH GETS $100

Same Amount Left to Library by James Lowndes—Relatives in Ireland and France Remembered by Bartholomew Daly—Mrs. Slosson
Leaves Real Estate to Daughter.

Mrs. Helen P. Laird, widow of Capt. Charles Laird, a naval officer, whose will was filed for probate yesterday, is named as the sole beneficiary and executrix of the estate.

The will of James Lowndes, of 1515 Massachusetts avenue, dated February 23, 1904, has been filed for probate. St. Paul's P. E. Church, of Charleston, S. C., is to receive $100, and the same amount is to go to the Charleston Library Society. His pew in St. John's Church is left to his widow, Laura W. Lowndes, for life, then to the vestry of St. John's parish. The wife is given all his chattels, his share in an Adirondack Mountain reserve, and in lot 80 of the Keene Heights Hotel Company tract.

Income for Sisters.
His remaining estate is devised to the American Security and Trust Company in trust to pay the income to his sisters, Julia L. Hamilton and Katherine H. Lowndes, during the life of the survivor. The trust estate is to be equally distributed among the children of Edward R. Lowndes, a nephew of the decedent.

By the terms of the will of Bartholomew Daly, dated July 31, 1899, $200 is left to his niece, Ella Daly, in Highland, County Cork, Ireland, and $1,000 to his nephew, John Hamilton, of Limerick, Ireland. The remaining estate is devised to a niece, Lily Hamilton, who resides in Paris, France. Rosamund F. Downing is named as executor.

Mrs. Marie C. Slosson, by her will dated July 8, 1904, leaves premises 1015 Fifteenth street northwest, 1365 Kenesaw avenue, and lot 17, block 77, Petworth, to her daughter, Julia E. Slosson, together with the household effects at 1415 Fifteenth street. Miss Slosson is also to hold in trust for her brother, John P. Slosson, premises No. 1415 Fifteenth street during his life. At his death the property is to go to Julia E. Slosson, Katherine A. Mason, Minnie J. Ostiguy, Walter A. Donaldson, Jr., and Kathryn U. Donaldson.

WILLARD MUST PROVE SANITY.

Another Jury Will Hear Plea of Acquitted Slayer.

Albert H. Willard, who was acquitted of the charge of murder in connection with the death of Irving W. Beck on May 8, will now be called upon to establish the fact to another jury that he is sane before he can gain his liberty.

His attorney, Thomas C. Taylor, will at once make application for an inquiry by a jury into the mental state of Willard, who, although acquitted, is still in custody, where he will remain until a jury will sit on the question of his mental condition.

TO CONSIDER BREAD WEIGHT.

New Commissioners Invite Dr. Wiley to Hearing February 2.

Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, Chief of the Bureau of Chemistry and the pure food expert of the Department of Agriculture, has been advised by the District Commissioners that on February 2, ground hog day—they will hold a public hearing on the regulation of bread weight.

Dr. Wiley will appear before the board in advocacy of the passage of the proposed law. He has promised to advocate not only standard weight, but to make some remarks on sanitary manufacture of bread and similar products, and discuss what he thinks should form part of the law as to ingredients.

ATTACKS SLAVE TRAFFIC.

Joseph Burt, of England, Delivers an Interesting Lecture.

In a lecture delivered last night at the Church of the Covenant, Joseph Burt, special commissioner to America of the Anti-Slavery and Aborigines Protection Society of London, severely attacked the wholesale slavery traffic now being practiced in the islands of St. Thomas and Principe, which supply America annually with several million pounds of cocoa.

Mr. Burt, who spent two years in Africa, where the slave trade flourishes, urged international action to prevent manufacturers from buying cocoa or chocolate produced by slave labor.

He stated the large English and some of the continental manufacturers have declared a boycott until free labor is introduced. It was the hope of the association, he said, to send him to America to lay bare the facts in connection with the present system.

Rev. John Van Schalk, Jr., pastor of the Church of Our Father, has opened his church to a discussion of this subject, and next Sunday a general public meeting will be held there.
